

2.2. IFRC ERU MSM20 International Training

Date Takes place every two years 23. - 31. October 2021 Location: Litzlberg, Upper Austria Trainers Austrian, German and Swedish RC ^EWASH Advisors, national and international trainers Further information <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Joint training between AutRC, GerRC and SweRC ▪ Training language: English ▪ Registration before 28th of August 2021 ▪ Max. number of participants 24 	Objective By the end of the training, participants are able to be deployed as ERU MSM20 team members and perform activities in the areas of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Hygiene Promotion, ▪ Sanitation (excreta disposal) and ▪ Environmental Sanitation (solid waste management, drainage, vector control) under the guiding principles of PGI¹, CEA² and Green Response in emergency settings. The training is designed to prepare WASH-delegates for international MSM20 deployments. Inclusion of RRP is a main objective.
Content General aspects: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ IFRC disaster response system ▪ WASH ERUs ▪ Work and life in a WASH team with focus on theoretical and practical work of the ^EWASH module MSM20 Main technical aspects: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Introduction to Hygiene Promotion, Excreta Disposal and Environmental Sanitation with a special focus on Protection, Gender and Inclusion ▪ Personal Soft Skill Development 	Requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ AutRC: Completed National WASH Basic Training ▪ Nomination through the Austrian, German or Swedish Red Cross ▪ Organisational skills and project management basics are an asset ▪ English (at least B2 level)

¹ Protection, Gender and Inclusion

² Community Engagement and Accountability