

International Mobilization and Preparation for ACTION - Online Course

IMPACTOnline

25 January- 1 February 2022

Purpose and objectives

IMPACT course is in general a basic training for delegates for overseas humanitarian missions in the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement.

The objectives of the course are to:

- Increase participants' understanding of and commitment to the Fundamental Principles, to the mandate of the Movement components.
- Address challenges of working in situations of conflicts, disaster, capacity building and development.
- Provide participants with knowledge, skills, and practical tips to work effectively with the host National Society and their colleagues in the field.

For Japanese participants, the course will also touch on the system and procedures within Japanese Red Cross Society for international deployments.

Course content

Building on what has been learnt in the WORC (World of Red Cross and Red Crescent), the IMPACT course includes also new topics which have been developed recently and are highlighted in the new Strategy 2030 and RC/RC Movement Decisions:

- Strengthening Movement Collaboration and Coordination
- IFRC Surge initiatives, Core Competency Framework for Rapid Response personnel
- Protection Gender Inclusion
- Community Engagement and Accountability
- Cash in Emergencies
- Accountability and Compliance
- Protection from Sexual Exploitation and Abuse

Course Structure

IMPACTOnline is a learning Journey combining individual online learning, virtual groupwork and webinars. It covers the following:

- Understanding the Context and the National Societies
- The Fundamental principles and Values into practice
- National Society Development
- Rapid Response tools and systems
- International Humanitarian Law
- Working in conflict situation
- Security
- Working together
- Compliance and accountability

Date

Tuesday 25 January - Tuesday 1 February 9:00-18:30 (JST) *No course on 29-30 January
And pre-training meeting (rehearsal and groupwork) 20 January 16:00-17:00 (JST)
*9:00-12:30(JST) : e-learning (self-paced) / 13:00-18:30(JST) :group work and webinar
Participants may adjust the e-learning schedule to the time of their preference.

Language

English

Venue

Online (Zoom)

Cost

Free

Required documents for application

- CV
- Motivation letter
Theme: Please state your motivation to apply for IMPACT Training and how you can contribute to the RCRC Movement when you are deployed in 400 words.
- Certificate of "WORC"
- Certificate of "Stay Safe -personal security" (as an alternative "Stay Safe -Personal Security crash course-"is also acceptable)

*All participants must complete the "World of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies" (WORC) and the "Stay Safe - Personal Security" module prior to submitting the documents.

A free online registration is available at <https://ifrc.csod.com/client/ifrc/default.aspx>

Pre-course preparation

As pre-requisite all participants must complete the following online pre-courses:

- The Code of Conduct
- 101 Corruption Prevention
- Targeted an introduction to Cybersecurity

Please contact support.learning@ifrc.org should you need support with the use of the Learning Platform.

Course design:

The course is composed of 14 hours self-paced asynchronous online training hosted on the IFRC Learning Platform, 12 hours Home Group Assignments and 18 hours for 6 "live" webinars with NS/IFRC/ICRC facilitation (See course schedule).

The details of the online trainings will be shared after the selection of participants.

Contact Information

Minami HOBARA and Kana ITO

E-mail: kokusai-training@jrc.or.jp

Planning and Coordination Division, International Department, Japanese Red Cross Society

Telephone: +81-3-3437-7090 Fax: +81-3-6679-0785